Insurance Companies Are Boosting Rates

Property owners these days have much to contend with. And in fact the future doesn't look very rosy for lower rents. Not only is the tax booster in our midst but the insurance booster has also put in an appearance, A representative of the Underwriters association has just finished making a tour of inspection of the town and he has evidently found conditions here very favorable to big destructive fires, for a general raise in rates has been put in force. Some buildings have been doubled, some trebled and most have been slightly advanced.

This all in the face of the fact that the town is getting better fire fighting equipment, having just purchased a new Seagrave fire truck and other equipment, and also we have never had any serious fires to make insurance companies fearful that conditions here are not up to the standard.

Real estate men expect to call a meeting and talk over the matter and raise a united protest where the rates have been boosted out of all reason. They claim it is not only unjust and a slap at the town, but that it looks like a scheme to create a greater revenue for the insurance companies.

The outlook for increased taxes with the boosting of assessments and the raise in the insurance rates will likely mean an advance in rents and thus the hope of benfits to be derived from the recent wave of prosperity are scattered to the four winds unless relief comes through a protest that might be entered through the real estate men.

It Stirs Up The Entire World

Battle scenes, cavalry charges, hand-to-hand fights between native Sepoys and British grenadiers—7.000 combatants in all—massacres, wholesade arson, the siege of a fort with mortars and the sweeping of massed ranks of infantry with shrapnel and field artillery, together with sensational harem scenes and Oriental dancing as done by native Indian girls all play a part in the massive four act photo-drama, "The Campbells are Coming."—Olympic tomorrow.

"The Campbells are Coming" is a four reel photo drama featuring Francis Ford and Grace Cunard. The play is a military drama of the Sepoy rebellion in India in 1857 and contains

Anniversary

The seventy fifth anniversary of the birth of Lewis Hirsch was celebrated at the Hirsch home on Schoonmaker avenue Monday evening by the presence of a number of intimate friends and near relatives. The guest list numbered twenty persons. A four course dinner was a brilliant feature of the evening, the home being handsomely decorated with pink chrysanthemums. The host received numerous gifts and many telegrams and messages of congratulations were received. The out of town guests were A. L. Goldberg of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hirsch of Donora, Mr. and Mrs L Bradwohl of Pittsburgh. and Miss Gussie Meyers of New Kensington.

Is Very Much Like Real War

In the production of "The Campbells are Coming" 11,000 pounds of powder and rounds of ammunition were used during the play.

Just think, 11,000 pounds of powder and 550 rounds of ammunition, this that during the production there were 5,850,000 shots fired by 7,000 Scotch Highlanders, English Grenadiers and Indian sepoys. Don't throw the paper down, stop and think of this and then come to the Olympic tomorrow and see this wonderful picture. 1t

Entertained Class

On Tuesday evening the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church was entertained by Mrs. George Jones at their home on Beatrice street.

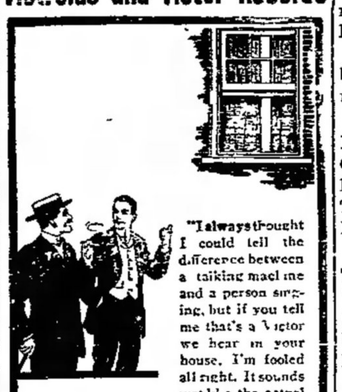
There was a large attendance present and the meeting was one of the very best which the men have had. The beginning of the program was taken up by each one being asked to make an impromptu speech of one minute on some topic, the response evoking very much laughter. Afterwards the welfare and betterment of the class was fully and freely discussed. There was a financial appeal made to the class and as has been the case the members responded very liberally indeed. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess. The usual vote of thanks was passed to Mr. and Mrs. Jones for their kindness in opening their home and for so loyally entertaining the class. The meeting adjourned with expressions of satisfaction from all for the good time they had.

On the invitation of Mr. George Nash, the next meeting will be held at his home in the beginning of January. All look forward to this time when it is hoped to have a much larger attendance present.

Convalescent

—Earl Shutterly arrived home today from the Monongahela hospital where he has been confined for the past eleven weeks from injuries sustained while at work at the Pittsburgh Steel Co. He is still in a precarious condition, but is able to move around a little with the aid of crutches. He was not to be discharged from the hospital for several weeks yet, but on account of the death of his wife's brother, Wilbur C. Sibbitt was allowed to come home. He is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Shutterly on Donner avenue.

Victrolas and Victor Records



"I always thought I could tell the difference between a talking machine and a person singing, but if you tell me that's a Victor we hear in your house, I'm fooled all right. It sounds just like the actual singer".

It was a Victor-Victrola, the wonderful instrument that plays and sings and talks everything absolutely true to life.

If you are not familiar with the high state of perfection reached in this instrument, come in and let us make you acquainted with it.

There's a Victor-Victrola for YOU—$15 to $200. Victors $10 to $100. Easy terms, if desired.

Calls On Judge To Pronounce Sentence

District Attorney C. Ward Eicher has written Judge Baldridge of Blair county and Judge Ruppel of Somerset county, asking those jurists to name dates when it will be convenient for them to return to Greensburg to complete their work. These judges presided at the August term of criminal court and there are several cases which they tried which have not been finally disposed of.

Douglass, the colored man. was convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of an old man named Smith, near Webster, on the 20th of June. Douglas was released from the Western Penitentiary a short time before.

The Smiths had sold their property in Virginia and had erected a shanty near Webster, where the old man had secured work. The colored man supposing the old folks had the money, entered their shanty just as it was beginning to break day. During the scuffle Mrs. Smith struck the negro on the shoulder with the blade of a pole ax and it was this wound that resulted in his capture by the state police and at the trial before Judge Ruppel was taken as conclusive proof by the jury and resulted in his conviction.

Douglas took his conviction good naturedly and he declared that he preferred the electric chair to a long term in the penitentiary. He has never been sentenced. His case will be disposed of by Judge Ruppel.

Bowling Match

With the approach of cold weather comes the interest in bowling and other sporting matches. The first duck pin match will be played at California between the team of that town and the Monessen Colonials for a $50.00 purse. The lineup for the Colonials is Victor Lauze, Harry Jarouse, John Casmere, Arthur Cavilli, Peter Cipiani and Dan Leihgeber.

Championship Game

The biggest event of the year in scholastic football in the Monongahela valley will be that next Saturday of the game between Charleroi High school and Monessen High school, to decide the championship of the Monongahela valley. The game will be played on the Charleroi field. Monessen will send 500 or more enthusiastic rooters to the affair and such towns as Monongahela, Donora and California will contribute to the crowd.

Both Charleroi and Monessen are getting down to their hardest work this week in preparing for the struggle. Coach Gdaniec, a last year's Bucknell star, is directing the Charleroi work, and Monessen has three coaches giving attention to various departments of the game, using a tackling dummy and other equipment.

Coaches Imler, Townsend and White are putting the locals through their hardest week of practice and although they realize the Charleroi team is much heavier they are still confident that the victory will be secured by the Monessen team. Many inducements including free meals, free hair cuts and cash have been offered the locals if they win the game. The contest will start early and fully 500 people from this city expect to attend.

Defeated Candidates Want The Warden's Job

The position of warden of the Westmoreland county jail is an attractive one and already more than half a dozen applicants have announced for Warden Nicholl's job. The appointment will be made on the first Monday of January by the Prison Board. The salary is rather attractive, $2,000 a year for the warden and $600 for the official's wife, who is the matron of the prison and looks after the female department.

Along with the $2,600 in salaries which the warden and matron receive they are given the residence with free light, fuel, water, potatoes. bread, coffee and such food as they care to take from the general supply purchased for feeding the prisoners free of cost.

Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Nichols were selected by the Prison board as warden and matron. Prior to the appointment of a warden, the sheriff lived in the jail during that official's term, and he was allowed 25 cents per day for keeping the prisoners and this was a regular bonanza for him. During the four years the jail has been operated under the present system, the prisoners have been better fed than under the old regime and the cost has been on an average of nine cents per diem for each prisoner. This has resulted in a net saving to the county of over $6,500 per year. or about $27,000 for the term, just equal to the sheriff's salary.

The applicants said to be making an active campaign for the position are Hary C. Wilson who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for treasurer; E. G. Sheets of Southwest Greensburg, an active Democratic politician; Squire George H. Martin of Youngstown, a candidate at the primaries for the Republican nomination for county commissioner; ex-County Detective Orrie M. Fleming, of Scottdale; John B. Nicholls, the present incumbent, and ex-Sheriff John E. Shields and several dark horses.

The appointment will be made by Common Pleas Judges Doty and McConnell, Sheriff-elect John P. Kilgore, County Commissioners-elect Deeds, Reamer and Boyd, Controller John S. Sell and District Attorney C. Ward Eicher.

The Commandment Rule

Very likely Mrs. Winifred Stoner's "Ten Commandments of Natural Education" have worked all right in respect to the thundering fine child she's got reared as far as 13 years of age, but it's a fair guess that the child itself is an exception among children.

Here's commandment No. 2. "Thou shalt not scold thy child, but give rewards for good behavior. Bribery rather than the shingle. Maybe it will work all right. Maybe systematic bribery will produce the perfect woman. Any little doubt that we may have ought not to count. for there isn't the slightest possibility of our having to marry her.

And here's commandment No. 8 that's got us flurried. "Thou shalt always answer thy child's questions." There is a certain child we know—boy, aged 4—who daily asks 3600 the first hour he's awake, and keeps it up until 7:30 p. m., and we are willing to wager a large sum that neither Mrs. Stoner nor any person can truthfully and correctly answer 75 per cent. of his questions. It seems to be his life work to get a natural education by asking questions, and he has got his parents taking up their life work again in trying to find the answers. There's only one port of refuge from a child who is getting a natural education and that is to fall back on "I don't know," which is no answer.

If Mrs. Stoner is raising an ususually remarkable child through strict adherence to her "Ten Commandments," she's about ten times as remarkable as her child.

Abandon These Plans

Our opinion hasn't been asked, but if it was, we would unhesitatingly voice disapproval of the program, reported to have been mapped out by Washington society after the wedding of President Wilson and Mrs. Galt, for an "unusually brilliant social season."

Leaving out the fact that the death of our president's former mate seems but a tragically brief space ago, the whole world is garbed in mourning for the war victims. The United States is the greatest of the neutral countries; towards her the nations of the earth look as the future mediator.

In official Washington, which means social Washington, there are the diplomats of all the warring countries, their hearts filled with anger at one another, and with grief for their stricken countries. It would seem in better taste were this ocuntry's capital to abandon its plans for "an unusally brilliant season."

Fruits of Gossip

An Illinois woman suicided last week. She left behind her an affectionate husband and two babies. A coroner's jury held an inquest and retured this verdict: "Killed by idle gossip." The neighbors had been talking about her, without cause, the jury thought. Friends of the deadly anonymous kind kept phoning her about it. It weighed on her mind and after kissing her babies goodbye, she left them forever.

The verdict rendered was not sufficiently scathing It should have read "assassinated." It might well have named the assassins, if it could. Of course, they could not have been punished by the law. These cowards, of both sexes, stop short of stepping across the line. But the world would have known them as they are.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Mt. Vernon, Ky.—Rev. Ezra Campbell is believed to be the oldest minister of the gospel in the United States. He is the pastor of three Baptist churches, has been preaching for 79 years, and holds the record in Kentucky as the marrying parson.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—On the 4th of July 7 years ago, Salvatore Amati, then 1 year old, was shot accidentally by his older brother. Paralysis followed and the boy died recently, after lingering for seven years.

Milford, Conn.—Ralph von Hacht, 23, blind from birth in one eye, had his sight restored when physicians successfully performed an operation for appendicitis. The appendix had been resting against one of the nerves which connects with the optic nerves.

Shenandoah, Ia.—Driving five dogs hitched to an Alaskan mail sled, Miss Estelle Mason of Nome, Alaska, is completing a queer world's tour. She finished her journey at Cincinnatti, having traveled 32,000 miles. If she arrives at San Francisco with two of her original dogs and the mail sled. she will receive $12,500.

New York, N. Y.—Charles Frederick Fowles wrote in his will that if he and his wife died under circumstances that made it difficult to decide which died first, it was to be presumed that he preceded her. They went down on the Lusitania.

New York, N. Y.—Jennie Reichs, 22, a waitress, has been treated in hospitals more than 150 times in two years. She has been taken to three different hospitals and treated for three different attacks in one day. Her malady is puzzling physicians who declare that every time she rides on a car or in a vehicle, the motion causes her muscles to tense so that she leaps into unconsciousness.

Baltimore, Md.—Stephen Brown was rushed to a hospital here for an operation on his eye, which had been pierced by a piece of steel. A powerful magnet was placed close to the eye. the current turned on and the steel silver came out. It was one-sixteenth of an inch thick and three quarters of an inch long.

PRINCE OF POPULAR LECTURERS

L. B. WICKERSHAM

NO POPULAR lecturer in America surpasses L. B Wickersham in his appeal to the average audience. Scholarly, yet never didactic. humorous, yet never clownish; uplifting, yet never dry and unmteresting, his addresses take hold of the heart strings. His record of return dates has never been surpassed in the Lyceum, 65 per cent of his engagements being in towns where he has appeared from one to four times. and his fund of material is practically inexhaustible. The late Sam Jones, who knew a lecturer when he heard him, said: "When committees ask me about a lecture, I tell them if they want a man who will do everybody good—and do them good forever—get Wickersham." Committees have been "getting Wickersham," on the advice of the lamented Jones, for years, and none has ever yet been disappointed. He is a man of spotless character, lofty purpose and great natural endowments; magnetic, brilliant, sympathetic and humorous His lectures are strikingly original, built around some fundamental truth, and gain added charm from his rich, musical voice and dramatic delivery. To hear Wickersham is to hear the Prince of Popular Lecturers.

At Homes in Egypt.

The method of serving light refreshments during an afternoon call among people in Egypt is somewhat peculiar and may not be generally known to the English people at home. A tray is brought in bearing one or more varieties of jam or sweetmeats, a number of glasses containing water and spoons corresponding to the number of guests present. As the tray is carried around each person takes one of the spoons and, after helping himself to a spoonful of jam, places the used spoon in one of the glasses of water. Sometimes biscuits and cakes are also offered. The custom appears to be of ancient origin. It might be thought that one bowl or glass would suffice for the used spoons, but custom dictates that each person must have a separate glass in which to put the used spoon. The glasses contain pure water, which the guests may drink should they so desire. — London Tit-Bits.

Poison of the Centipede.

The centipede is popularly supposed to carry a sting on each foot, but I have several times handled one after its head was removed without the claws producing any result. It is the first pair of claws only that are venomous, being hollow and provided with poison bags like a snake's fang. The largest I ever saw was eleven inches in length, a grewsome creature. A bite from one of this size would most likely have been fatal to a man in weak health. The tarantula, though his powers of offense are nothing like those of the scorpion or centipede, is, however, a more unpopular character than either. The horror of thes large spiders entertained by many people is curious and unaccountable. I have seen Australian bushmen, who in everyday life scarcely seemed to understand danger, turn white as a sheet at the sight of a small "triantelope," as they called it.—Chambers' Journal.

Illusions.

An illusion is something we believe in so much that we prefer it to reality. Happiness is the ability to create and maintain one's illusions on a paying basis.

Every illusion should be properly supported. Some people are so mean that when an illusion rings their bell and asks for board and lodging they slam the door in its face.

It is better to maintain one or two illusions in good style, giving them constant care and nourishment, than it is to have so many that you have to flit too often from one to another.

Without illusions we should lay so much stress on reality that life would not be worth living. Reality itself is the biggest illusion of all, but the most unprofitable, because it is the only one that pays no return on the investment.

Life without illusions is like a bird without wings.—Life.

Origin of Road Rules.

The origin of the rule for pedestrians to keep to the right dates back to a period when such things as roads were unknown. Before the road as we know it existed progress from place to place was accomplished by means of tracks or paths, used in common by mounted and foot wayfarers. As in early days every traveler carried his life in his hands and saw in every approaching stranger a potential enemy, so the unarmed man either retreated from the path or was beaten from it by an advancing stranger, if the latter were armed. When two armed men met with shield on left arm and sword in right hand, they of necessity passed each other on the right, so as to bring shield to shield, thus completely sheltered, but with the sword arm ready to strike if needed.—London Globe.

Origin of "Watered Stock."

The expression "watered stock," which describes so well the expansion of the stock of a company beyond the value of the property, originated, it is said, in connection with Daniel Drew, who was once the wealthiest and most unique manipulator in Wall street. Drew had been a drover in his younger days, and it was said of him that before selling his cattle in the market he would first give them large quantities of salt to make them thirsty and then provide them with all the water they could drink. In this way their weight was greatly increased, and the purchaser was buying "watered stock."

Bobby's Fruitless Search.

Bobby heard his mother tell his father that her mother, who was ill, was in a comatose state and she must go to her at once.

Bobby immediately ran for his geography and looked diligently for some time through it. Finally he brought it to his father and said: "Father, I can't find the state of comatose in here. Will you?"—Judge.

Hoyle.

The father of whist, Edmond Hoyle, lived to be ninety-seven years old. His treatise on cards has been published in all languages, and probably no work except the Bible has passed through more editions. The original work appeared in London in 1742.

Brevity.

"Brevity is the soul of wit," remarked the old fogy.

"Then there are mighty few witty preachers in the world," said the grouch.—Buffalo News.

Its Usual Remark.

Master Bilton—Pa, what does money say when it talks? Bilton Senior (speaking from personal experience)—Goodby, dodge.

If you don't do better today you'll do worse tomorrow.—Loomis.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Monessen Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Monessen readers.

Mrs. Ida Coleman, 311 Sixth St., Monessen, says: "I was troubled by a constant backache and in the morning especially when I stooped to put on my shoes, I found it hard to straighten. Sharp pains took my breath away. I felt tired all the time and had dizzy spells and hot flashes. My head ached. I doctored for a long time but didn't get much good and finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Kirk's drug store. They gave me great relief and after I had taken the second box, the trouble disappeared. I haven't had any cause for complaint since. Others of the family are now using Doan's Kidney Pills and consider them the best kidney medicine on the market."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Coleman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mother and Efficiency.

The efficiency experts appear to have overlooked the most important field of all. While the railroads have been subjected to the closest scrutiny, while the automobile industry has been reduced to the lowest cost minimum, and filing systems, group work, overhead charges, etc., have all received their meed, mother appears to have escaped. Mother still does pretty much as she pleases. Her whims still continue to regulate the prices of the leading commodities. Whether a large portion of the community shall travel, how much they shall eat and what they shall wear still depends upon mother, who buys nine-tenths of everything that is bought. Until the "mother efficient" is inaugurated, how can we expect to make much progress?—Life.

Stars Hotter Than the Sun.

Scientific research shows that the sun has a temperature of 4950 degrees; Aldebaran, that beautiful star in Taurus, 5150 degrees; the polar star, 5200 degrees, and the dog star Sirius, 7500 degrees. This goes to show that the sun is undoubtedly one of the coldest of the stars. It also is evidence that absurdly low temperatures of the earth which living things here consider hot are, as compared with the heavenly bodies, regions of frigidity. Even the electric furnace, with its 3500 degress of heat, is as ice compared with temperatures in the dog star and the others.—New York American.

Northern Lights.

The frequency of the Aurora Borealis is supposed to be variable, with a period of about eleven years, corresponding almost exactly with that of the frequency of sun spots. For this reason, among others, it is supposed that some connection exists between the two.

The Human Jaw.

The human jaw is very loosely socketed in the skull, so that it is often dislocated by the mere act of yawning. Not being intended for biting purposes, offensive or defensive, no attention seems to have been paid by nature to making it fast.

Stock Definition.

Little Johnny on being asked by his schoolteacher if he knew what was meant by "at par" promptly replied that "ma was always at ju when he came home late at night."—Exchange.

Too Happy For Words.

"How did Alice announce her engagement to the family?"

"She just wiggled the finger that had on the diamond ring."—Boston Transcript.

OLYMPIC
HOME OF THE PIPE ORGAN

Our Program for This Week Surpasses all the Previous.

THURSDAY—Now look out. Never in the history of the moving picture world has there ever appeared on any screen, any picture more thrilling, more stupendous or more expensive. It cost $500,000. We said the carpenters alone got one hundred and seventeen thousand dollars $117,000 and not $11,700 as by a mistake of the printer was advertised in yesterday's Daily Independent.

"The Campbells are Coming" is the famous Broadway Universal feature with the brilliant stars Francis Ford and Grace Cunard acting in the thrilling serial picture "The Broken Coin." "The Campbells are Coming" is the greatest military spectacle of the year in photo play, with a cast of 25,000 people. A gigantic and wonderful presentation of the Relief of Lucknow, India, 1857.

FRIDAY—Special —The Quality Picture Corporation through the Metro Picture Co. presents the sovereign of screen stars Francis X. Bushman and Marguerite Snow in an admirable vehicle, "The Second Command." Francis X. Bushman and Marguerite Snow are so well known and so famous that further advertising would be considered useless. It is a great feature.

SATURDAY—One of the famous 101 Bison features, "Mettle of Jerry McGuire," and our famous serial picture "The Diamond from the Sky" Now you remember that in addition to these big features of dramas, we have every one of famous comedies of famous companies.

Monday—One Nestor L KO.

Tuesday—One of Imp's.

Wednesday—One of L KO in two reels with Billie Ritchie.

Thursday —One Powers and one Nestor comedy

Friday—Charles Chaplin.

Saturday—One of Joker and one of L Ko comedies.

SYNOPSIS OF OUR WONDERFUL SERIALS THIS WEEK

THURSDAY—The most astonishing. the most wonderul, the greatest military spectacle of the year, "The Campbells are Coming," a Universal feature featuring the well known stars, Grace Cunard and Francis Ford. One of the most, if it is not the only one, expensive production on the market. A matchless romantic war drama that stirs your every emotion. Remember it, Thursday and do not forget Friday that Quality Picture Corporation through the Metro Co. present at the Olympic the sovereign of screen stars, Francis X. Bushman and the exquisite artist, Marguerite Snow in an admirable vehicle "The Second Command," in five parts. Useles to say very much about Francis X. Bushman and Marguerite Snow. They are second to none on the moving picture stage. Miles and miles the moving picture fans are traveling only to see these famous stage stars.

For SATURDAY—There is no use to say anything further, only to tell you that for our special we have "Mettle of Jery McGuire, a drama of the famous Bison sompany 101 ranch, the 26th episode of "The Diamond From the Sky" and on the top of this three comedies,—"His Twentieth Century Susie," a Joker production; "Cupid and the Scrub Lady" one of L KO's and last but not least Charles Chaplin in a comedy. You dare not miss such a week of offerings at the Olympic.

Street Commissioner A. Frazier and his force of workmen have been busy the past two days excavating for the paving of the alley back of the postoffice. An agreement has been signed by which the property owners will pay for the paving, the borough incurring none of the expense.

—Lillian Lorraine and Wm. Courtleigh in "Neal of the Navy," a serial picture which has taken by storm the entire moving picture world everywhere. Two reels. It is produced by the famous Balboa Film Co. for Pathe by the same company that produced the serial picture "Who Pays?"—Today at Olympic. 1t

—Mrs. Hugh Jones entertained the members of the "Clover Leaf Crochet Club" at her home on Schoonmaker avenue last night. Thirteen members were present. The evening was pleasantly spent in crocheting, music, and singing, after which a delicious "dutch lunch" was served by the hostess. The guests departed to meet at the home of Miss Zella Scott next Tuesday evening.

One of the most sensational scenes in "The Campbells are Coming" is the flight of the lone scout from Cawnpore to Lucknow. In a dozen sabre battles on horseback he brings his native opponents crashing to the ground. As he and his horse are picking their way across a narrow rope and board bridge, a native cuts the ropes and the rider's horse plunges forty feet to the bottom of the gully. The scout makes his way across the rope hand over hand and finally reaches Luiknow, where he engages in the stirring battle between the 7,000 natives and Scotch Highlanders.—Tomorrow at Olympic. 1t

MARY PICKFORD

Mary Pickford, the most popular girl in the world, the highest paid artist who ever lived, talks every day through the columns of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

She writes on all sorts of vital and absorbing subjects, in which her remarkable career since the age of 5 and her phenominal success have made her experienced beyond her years, while she still retains the understanding and heart of a child.

Her articles are full of anecdotes and the personal experiences of a young girl who has made herself famous.

This girl, who is loved throughout the world on account of the sweetness, grace, love and sympathy she can silently express in her face and figure, says things worth listening to.

You are invited to write to Miss Pickford through the Dispatch on any subject on which you would like her opinion or advice. She will reply either direct to you or in the correspondence department at the end of each Daily Talk. Her articles now appear daily in the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Don't miss one of these fascinating daily talks. Order the Daily Dispatch from your newsdealer at once.

Thompson Arrives Home

J. V. Thompson, the coal king who tried to corner all the coal land in the country, arrived at his home in Uniontown last evening to face his creditors. He had spent several weeks in New York trying to raise money enough on his $70,000,000 assets to temporarily relieve his $30,000,000 liabilities. Thus far he has failed to obtain any financial relief and many believed he would not show his face in Uniontown again, but he came back to face the music.

He was met at the train by the sheriff who had his pockets full of processes to serve on the high financier. Writs, injunctions and notices together with other legal literature were read to Thompson as he reclined in his once easy chair in his palatial office. He merely smiled and when the legal formalities were through he said "I'm feeling fine and I'll come out all right." It is said he looked fine and he evidently was feeling finer than some of his creditors who fear they will lose every dollar they have in the world over Thompson's unbridled speculations. What the out come will be remains to be determined with the more than 1,400 suits already entered.

THE CAUSE OF ANAEMIA

It is universally known that iron is a very important element of the blood, and lack of it is the direct cause of ruff down conditions and anaemia. It may interest our readers to know that the Hirsch Drug Co. of this town, has in Vinol, a reliable, constitutional remedy for such conditions. Vinol supplies iron to the blood in its most soluble state, then there's the nourishing properties of beef peptone and the medicinal curative extractives of fresh cod livers, all dissolved in a pure native tonic wine. That's what makes Vinol so successful in overcoming run-down and anaemic conditions.

Opening Tomorrow

The Sanitary Dye Works, one of the largest concerns in the country has opened a branch establishment in this city and will have their formal opening Thursday evening of this week. The hours are from 7:30 to 10:30 and souvenirs will be presented to each visitor. The public is invited to visit the concern which is located in the new building at 467 Schoonmaker avenue, and inspect the modern methods of pressing clothes.

The machine used by the Sanitary Dye Works is of the latest and most sanitary design and the company guarantees satisfaction or will cheerfully refund your money. All pressing will be done at the local store by experienced workmen and at prices that will startle the community. The cleaning and dyeing of garments, rugs, draperies, etc., will be done in their large factory equipped with the best facilties in the country for this work. The public is invited to visit the new establishment tomorrow evening.

battle scenes which are said to have no parallel in moving picture production.

In the first three reels of "The Campbells are Coming," Francis Ford the director, has included a battle scene between 7,000 picturesquely clad British grenadiers and Sepoy natives in costume. Several regiments of Canadian soldiers, who have since gone to the Flanders front, were led into action by the Scottish Highlanders band of Vancouver, B. C.

Three villages of baracks erected at an estimated cost of $40 for each shack were burned. One set contained nineteen substantial buildings and is 400 feet deep. Trained acrobats and high divers, forty-four in all, were shot down from the great fort. Their falls from heights of from 80 to 100 feet into nets out of range of the camera lens compose but a few of the many thrills which have been incorporated in the picture. The fort used in the drama was erected at a cost of $18,000.

Some idea of the stupendous nature of the Universal multiple-reel photo drama of the massacre at Cawnpore, India, in 1857 and the relief of Lucknow in the same year may be obtained from the fact that the masons' and carpenters' bills for the erection of sets in the play at Universal City totalled $117,000. 1t

Wrestling Match

Local followers of the mat will welcome the announcement that Wladsylaw Bonecki, the champion Polish wrestler of the United States, has accepted the challenge of Paul Davis, the Canadian champion for a wrestling match to be held in the Ruthenian hall on Schoonmaker avenue next Monday evening. These men are recognized as the best wrestlers in this part of the country at the present time and both have given exhibitions in various cities previous to their meeting here. At the request of local fans the big match to settle the championship will be staged here and several good preliminaries will also be included in the evening's entertainment. Bonecki is the local favorite and his friends will turn out in large numbers that night.
